Ty R. Pine
NFIB/Ohio Legislative Director

NFIB/Ohio Legislative Director Ty R. Pine first joined NFIB in August 2000 and served as assistant state director for public policy before assuming the role of legislative director. Pine leads the group's public policy initiatives, including lobbying, political and grassroots initiatives for NFIB/Ohio's more than 25,000 small-business members.

Pine has an extensive background in state government public affairs. Prior to coming to NFIB, he served as chief of legislative and public affairs for the Ohio Department of Insurance.

Among his prominent victories for small business are the passage of a comprehensive tort reform package, workers' compensation reform, and an Eminent Domain Moratorium and study panel to ensure that private property rights are protected.

A graduate of Ohio University, Pine and his wife, Tedra, reside in Upper Arlington with their daughter Avery and son Wesley.

NFIB is the nation's leading small-business advocacy association, with offices in Washington, D.C. and all 50 state capitals. Founded in 1943 as a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization, NFIB gives small- and independent-business owners a voice in shaping the public policy issues that affect their business. NFIB's powerful network of grassroots activists sends their views directly to state and federal lawmakers through our unique member-only ballot, thus playing a critical role in supporting America's free enterprise system.

NFIB's mission is to promote and protect the right of our members to own, operate and grow their businesses. More information about NFIB is available online at www.NFIB.com/newsroom.
